

JERSEY HOMES TO HAVE FIVE ROOMS

Housing Corporation to Help Tenants Carry Purchase Price of $2,500.

It is estimated $2,500 will be the cost of each apartment to be erected by the Housing Corporation of the Jersey City Chamber of Commerce.

Shares will be sold for $100 each and each owner must hold twenty-five shares. As soon as persons purchase a minimal amount of stock to show good faith," said Chairman Voorhes to day, "we will carry the remainder on easy terms."

Each house will be built on a 50 foot lot. An apartment will contain a living room, two bedrooms, kitchen, dining room and bath. All will be steam heated and electric lighted, with garage for every house. The floor plan of all will be the same, but the exterior will be varied to redeem the architectural monotony.

Several persons have applied already for homes in the proposed development, which will be in the Greenville section.

Bishop O'Connor Promotes Jersey Priest.

Bishop John J. O'Connor of the Roman Catholic diocese of Newark today announced the promotion of Rev. Edward G. Murphy, assistant rector of Our Lady of Grace Church, Hoboken, to the rectory of St. Joseph's Church, Jersey City. Rev. Murphy relieved the Rev. Henry A. Deale, who resigned because of illness.

CONFESSES BURGLARIES.

Window Cleaner Took $250 Ring and Other Valuables.

John Manoukian, of No. 320 East Thirty-second Street, pleaded guilty today to burglaries in the apartment of Mrs. Henry R. Kunhardt, No. 155 East 72d Street, before Magistrate Frothingham in the Yorkville court. John was a window cleaner who began work in the apartment house a year ago and Mrs. Kunhardt noticed that theft followed his window cleaning.

Detective McGuire hid in a closet in the apartment on Nov. 7 and saw Manoukian help himself to a $250 diamond ring. The thief told the court that he had sold about $150 worth of Mrs. Kunhardt's lingerie for $17.

Manoukian was implicated in the $100,000 jewelry robbery of the Hamilton Fish Benjamin home, and received a suspended sentence for turning State's evidence.

HORSEWHIP FOR LAZY MAN.

Judge Also Suggests Jail if He Doesn't Go to Work.

Joseph Mazzarese, No. 21 Riverdale Avenue, Yonkers, testifying in his mother's divorce suit in White Plains today, admitted that he had not worked for three years and that he had been supported by his mother and brother.

Supreme Court Justice Seeger told him he ought to be horsewhipped, then recommended that he be watched by the police and arrested as a vagrant if he fails to go to work.

BRILL BROTHERS

We've Turned the Clock Back Six Years

and it's costing us $250,000 to do it

Someone had to take the plunge. Someone had to grit his teeth and say, "I'll take my loss and get it over with." Weeks ago we began cutting prices. Others followed suit. But this is a complete and final crash which will, we believe, establish an entirely new basis of prices and values, a "new normal," or, if you prefer, the "old normal" of six years ago. The reductions spell a loss of $250,000 to us; only reserves built up during 33 years enable us to do it. Buy at this sale—not merely because prices have finally touched bottom, but because you'll start the wheels turning in the mills; brace up business—and indirectly help yourself.
